There's no easier way to say "I do" than at The Midland. We'll handle every detail, from your ceremony and menu, to flowers and music. The Midland boasts original features inside and out, creating a stunning backdrop for your special day. Whether you're planning an intimate celebration for 20 or a grand wedding for 400, we have the perfect space to suit your needs.

From your first enquiry at The Midland, your personal wedding coordinator will be by your side, helping turn your dream wedding into a reality. Managing all the details and collaborating with trusted suppliers to ensure everything runs smoothly. With their expertise and guidance, you can rest easy knowing your special day is in good hands, allowing you to fully enjoy the celebration without any stress or concerns.

As a couple, you'll spend your wedding night in our Bridal Suite, with stunning city views and luxurious furnishings. With a total of 312 bedrooms, there's also room for your wedding guests to unwind at The Midland once the party is over, so you can re-live the whole day again over breakfast.

THE TRAFFORD SUITE

With elevated ceilings and abundance of natural daylight, The Trafford Suite has the distinction of being the first place in which the Tango was danced in England.

Our most popular wedding space features intricate coving, pale blue walls with detailed panelling, a circular chandelier light in the centre of the room, and panoramic daylight coming in from St Peter’s Square.

This room is located on the ground floor, within close proximity to the Octogan Lounge, the Lounge and Champagne Bar, and bathrooms.

THE STANLEY SUITE

Originally built as a reading room for edwardian gentlemen, The Stanley Suite's restored wooden pannelling evokes the ambience of a classic private members club.

This space is located on the ground floor within a beautiful, quiet corridor towards the back of the hotel. With natural lighting coming in from one whole side of the room, and original fireplaces at either end. The Stanley Suite is a totally unique space for ceremonies, wedding breakfasts or evening receptions.
